

ESCAPE × GATHER × REFRESH

Welcome to Woodstock

Northwest of Atlanta's perimeter but south of the Blue Ridge Mountains sits an idyllic city waiting to be the backdrop for your happiest hours.

Explore world-class hiking and biking trails, award-winning breweries, chef-driven restaurants, a vibrant arts and music scene, diverse shopping options, community events, and more. There's something for everyone here.

Welcome to Woodstock, Georgia.

Get to Know Woodstock

Did you know?

- Woodstock was officially established in 1897.
- In 2023, Woodstock was named one of Wallet Hub's Best Small Cities in America... And the highest ranking city in Georgia!
- Watch for stars in Woodstock... From Netflix's "Ozark" to Disney's "Noelle", many projects have filmed scenes throughout the city.

Dining & Drinking

Downtown Woodstock boasts over 20 incredible restaurants, two award-winning breweries, and multiple live music venues, all within a one-mile radius.

Choose from:

- | | |
|---------|----------------------|
| Mexican | Breakfast & brunch |
| Italian | Classic American |
| BBQ | Coffee shops |
| Sushi | Desserts & sweets |
| Indian | Smoothie & juice bar |
| Seafood | |

...and an eclectic, ever-revolving roster of food trucks.

Did you know?

Participating restaurants in Woodstock's downtown area can put your favorite adult beverage in an approved open container so you can sip as you stroll.

Shopping

In Woodstock, shoppers get the best of both worlds with access to Georgia's newest outlet center, along with a plethora of unique boutiques and local shops.

Located at Exit 9 off I-575, The Outlet Shoppes at Atlanta offers savings of up to 70% on designer and name brands like Coach, Kate Spade, Nike, Under Armour, and more. Peruse great deals in the beautiful open-air complex that also features some convenient dining options.

Not two miles from The Outlet Shoppes, our Downtown district features one-of-a-kind shops, spas, and boutiques offering everything from apparel, accessories, and decor to antiques, books, premium olive oil, and more.

With multiple music venues in the Downtown district, Woodstock's bound to have the tune to move you.

You will quickly discover why locals often say it feels like something is always going on in Woodstock! From festivals, parades, scavenger hunts, live music, theatrical plays and musicals, and much more, Woodstock's entertainment options won't disappoint.

The Woodstock Arts Event Green space hosts the Lantern Series, a concert series that brings world-renowned artists to our own backyard. It features unique artists from different genres, backgrounds, and ideologies to create a space of diversity and inclusion centered around music.

Finally, the Woodstock Summer Concert Series is a free monthly event that brings artists and tribute bands to the Northside Hospital-Cherokee Amphitheater from May-September.

Event Calendar

There’s always something happening in Woodstock.

From world-class arts experiences and concerts to cooking classes that stir the pot, tell your mama ‘n them there’s something for everyone here.

ENTERTAINMENT

Woodstock Summer Concert Series

2nd Saturday of the Month from May - Sept @ 7:30pm. Concerts are free to attend and take place at the Northside Hospital - Cherokee Amphitheater in Downtown Woodstock.

Pub Crawl Series

Pub Crawl themes include Mardi Gras, Cinco de Mayo, Star Spangled in July, and Oktoberfest.

Taste of Woodstock

A “Taste Of” event which features the best restaurants in Woodstock on the Woodstock Arts Event Green. Takes place on 2nd Thursday in September, 5pm - 9pm.

SHOPPING

Sip + Shop Series

Your favorite stores will have special deals to help you find the perfect gifts, discover new merchants you’ll love, and find the best in new seasonal fashions. Attendees enjoy light bites and festive beverages provided by participating shops and restaurants along the way. Spring Sip + Shop takes place in March and the Holiday Sip + Shop takes place in November. This is a ticketed event.

Ghouls Night Out

Kids are invited to Trick or Treat with the merchants of Downtown Woodstock on the Friday evening before Halloween.

FUN FOR ALL

Woodstock Farm Fresh Market

April - Dec, 8:30am - Noon
Located on Market Street in Downtown Woodstock.

Star Spangled in July

A full day of celebration for the 4th of July - The Woodstock Freedom Run and Parade are followed by a family-friendly festival and music in the Park at City Center. Evening fireworks begin at dusk at the Target Shopping Center on Highway 92.

Woodstock Scavenger Hunt

Discover everything Woodstock has to offer in a fun and family-friendly way during this city-wide scavenger hunt.

Scarecrow Invasion

Throughout the month of October, over 200 scarecrows will be on display in Downtown Woodstock. Each one uniquely different from another, and all with the same amount of impressive creativity.

Halloween Trail of Tricks & Treats

Fun Halloween event for kids on the Rubes Creek Trail.

Woodstock Christmas Jubilee & Parade of Lights

On the 1st Saturday in December, join us for the Jubilee and Parade of Lights. Enjoy the Lighting of the Christmas Tree, musical entertainment, and pictures with Santa Claus at the Park at City Center.

Family Fun Night Series

The Family Fun Night series features family-friendly themes with activities around downtown including a free movie on the Woodstock Arts Event Green. An event the kids are sure to love! This event series takes place the third Thursday of each month, May to August, from 5pm to 9pm in Downtown Woodstock.

Downtown WDSTK Walking Tour Series

Guided Walking Tours are offered April-October on the last Thursday of the month in Downtown Woodstock. Tour topics include Woodstock History, Public Art in the area, and Weird and Funny Facts about the city!

This is a ticketed event.

Our thriving arts organization, Woodstock Arts, is located in the heart of Downtown Woodstock.

This team of local artists brings culture and vibrancy to our community through world-class theater performances, an outdoor concert series, educational experiences, visual arts and more.

Did you know?

Woodstock Arts holds over 500 events a year, including the award-winning Lantern Concert Series, amazing theatrical productions, breathtaking art exhibits and so much more!

Woodstock Arts recently opened the Reeves House Visual Arts Center, an expansive open-plan exhibition space, arts studio, and coffee/wine bar. Located across from Reformation Brewery, just a few steps down the Greenprints Trail, it's the perfect spot to catch your breath, enjoy an artisan beverage, and people watch.

Paddle, pedal, swim, hike, bike, and more in Woodstock's expansive outdoor spaces like public parks, mountain-view golfing, Woodstock Dog Park, and 270 miles of shoreline along Lake Allatoona.

We also have miles of outdoor trails, including world-class mountain biking trails. Whether you're a novice looking for a fun afternoon on a paved trail or a seasoned pro looking for your next challenge, Woodstock delivers.

Only in Woodstock

Visitors and locals alike enjoy truly unique experiences and spaces throughout Woodstock. Learn new culinary techniques through the chef-taught cooking classes at Leaning Ladder in Downtown Woodstock.

VISITWOODSTOCKGA.COM

Tap into your inner maker at Made Mercantile, where local artisans teach you how to pour your own candles, screen-print art, and more.

Level up at Blue Ghost, an arcade packed with the best games of the past and present.

At Historic Dixie Speedway you can enjoy hours of high speed excitement at Georgia's premier clay oval race track.

Or get outside and make a splash in Lake Allatoona water skiing, tubing, and more. End your day by taking in the sights of North Georgia at sunset from a hot air balloon.

ESCAPE GATHER REFRESH

Make Woodstock your Base Camp for expeditions to the North Georgia Mountains.

With world class dining, amazing shopping, and a vibrant music & arts scene, Woodstock is a great starting point for your adventures.

Here are just a few fun things to do within an hour's drive of Woodstock:

- The Blue Ridge Scenic Railway
- Amicalola Falls, The Highest Waterfall in Georgia
- The Starting Point & Southern Most Point for the Appalachian Trail in Georgia
- New Echota State Historic Site
- Numerous Wineries located throughout Northwest Georgia
- Gibbs Gardens
- Red Top Mountain State Park

WOODSTOCK
*Base Camp*SM
TO NORTH GEORGIA

Ready to plan the best outing your group has ever experienced? Bring them to Woodstock and enjoy Georgia's newest shopping outlet, locally owned boutiques, world-class outdoor activities, a vibrant music scene, and chef-driven restaurants.

Woodstock has many meeting spaces that can accommodate various professional events, conferences, and meeting types. A number of Woodstock's local restaurants can also accommodate large groups. And if you'd like to eat on-site, there are numerous mouth-watering catering options to explore.

Visit Woodstock GA offers group rates and dedicated services for creating the perfect itinerary for your group.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Comfort Suites

340 Parkway 575
Woodstock, GA 30188
770-517-9650

Fairfield Inn & Suites

455 Parkway 575
Woodstock, GA 30188
770-926-4669

Hampton Inn

450 Parkway 575
Woodstock, GA 30188
770-592-2323

Holiday Inn Express & Suites

1470 Woodstock Parkway
Woodstock, GA 30188
770-592-4438

Intown Suites

470 Parkway 575
Woodstock, GA 30188
770-592-7848

Microtel Inn & Suites

305 Molly Lane
Woodstock, GA 30189
678-738-0001

Stay Lodge of Woodstock

106 Woodpark Boulevard
Woodstock, GA 30188
770-924-8770

WOODSTOCK

GEORGIA

WOODSTOCK Visitors Center

8588 Main Street • 770.924.0406
Monday - Saturday, 10am - 5pm

 visitwoodstockga  visitwoodstockga

 visitwoodstockga.com

Photography: Visit Woodstock GA; City of Woodstock;
Maniac Agency; Truck & Tap; The Outlet Shoppes of Atlanta;
Woodstock City Church; Woodstock Arts; Murph's Surf Shop; Balloon Atlanta;
Blue Ghost Arcade; Leaning Ladder; Historic Dixie Speedway; Made Mercantile
Layout, Design & Printing: DMG Creative, LLC